The first mention of Bakes in America was Thomas Bake who was granted a strip of 40 miles of land along the Kennebec River. He was the joint owner of Arrowsick Island with Capt. Thomas Clarke of Boston, but unfortunately Thomas Bake was killed by the Indians on Arrowsick Island on the morning of 14 August 1676. Arrowsick Id. is on the east side of the Kennebec River opposite Fort Popham. This Thomas Bake was a brother of Sir Edward Bake Esq., Lincolnshire, England.

Strange to say, there were two other Thomas Bakes in Boston at about this time. One was a tailor and the other a prominent merchant.

Another Thomas Bake came to America with the second immigration in 1630. He joined the Church on 20 Oct., 1640, and in the Dorchester, Mass. Burial Ground is a double headstone, on one end of which is "Thomas Bake, 70 years, deceased 27 Oct 1676" and on the other side is "The same, aged 40 years, deceased 20 Oct. 1676."

It is also on record that the wife of Henry Bake suffered for witchcraft in Dorchester, Mass., in 1704.

The first town patent of Gravesend, Long Island, was granted by Governor Kieft, 13 Dec., 1646, to Lady Morley, Sir Henry Morley and 27 associates, among whom were John Bake and Thomas Spicer.

John Bake married Anne Spicer, daughter of Thomas Spicer. He died previous to 4 Aug., 1646, when his will was filed. He left the following children:

1. John
2. Daniel
3. Margaret
4. William
5. Elizabeth
6. Michael

Lake Family

Letters of C. N. McMillan

Feb. 21, 1951

"I may say that through this material I have been able to push the Lake family much further back than previously, and to connect them with Sir Edward Lake, who came to Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1631, then returned to England and somewhat later died. When Thomas, his brother, came in 1634, and John, our immediate ancestor in 1636. He was one of the founders of the Gravesend Plantation, on Long Island, with Lady Moody and Sir Henry Moody, her son.

"A son, Thomas Lake, son of Thomas Lake of New Haven, Conn., succeeded to the title, upon the death of Sir Edward, and returned to England to inherit the estate."

Dec 26, 1951

"Upon the living room wall, framed under glass, I found the original parchment of the grant of five thousand acres of land lying in what is now Washington County. Arent Van Corlaen was brother-in-law of John, Thomas, James & Nicholas Lake, each of whom received a thousand acres."

"Then there was a second grant of ten thousand acres, granted to others of the sons of Nicholas Lake, his sons-in-law and others, whose sons or daughters married into the Lake family, as did Arent Van Corlaen, who married Mary Lake. So far as I have been able to learn, Arent Van Corlaen and Mary Lake left no issue."

"In his book (Dr. Arthur Adams & Sarah Rialley, "The Genealogy of The Lake Family") he says it is not sure whether the original John Lake, of Gravesend married Anne Spicer before coming to the Colonies or afterwards. But only within the past few days I have the record that they were married in 1647.

"Their first son John Jr., or Jan, as shown in the Bapt. records, had as children, he married Neeltje Claassen — 1. Jan, bp. Apr. 15, 1681; 2. Daniel, bp. Apr. 25, 1686; 3. Thomas; 4. Nicholas, who was actually ancestor of the Canadian Loyalist Lakes, as well as many others.
